

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

A Place Where Everybody Belongs

Sonoran University maintains a number of policies that guide the administrative functions of the university. A University Policy is a rule that generally has university-wide applicability. A policy may include governing principles, may either mandate or constrain action, may ensure compliance with laws, or may mitigate the university's risk. Broadly, a policy is either academic or administrative in scope and application.

- Enrollment Policies (<https://catalog.sonoran.edu/catalog/university-policies/enrollment-policies/>)
- Registration Policies (<https://catalog.sonoran.edu/catalog/university-policies/registration-policies/>)
- Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress (<https://catalog.sonoran.edu/catalog/university-policies/standards-satisfactory-academic-progress/>)
- Student Records (<https://catalog.sonoran.edu/catalog/university-policies/student-records/>)
- Graduation (<https://catalog.sonoran.edu/catalog/university-policies/graduation/>)